

KPUMC WEEKLY UPDATES

July 18, 2019

SUNDAY IS COMING

Hosea, a prophet during the 8th century, BCE, God uses as a model of repentance. Since the beginning of time the human condition has been broken and flawed. The title of the message this week is, "When Pity is Exhausted." The first chapter of Hosea will help us to look at the human condition and God's response. What can we learn from the 8th century prophet for living the life of discipleship today?

Bushels of fun at the Basket Making Class

Instructor Jerry Bair stated, "Gloria, Mary Etta, Sue and Jackie U are now professional basket makers."

Thank you to Jerry and Janet Bair for facilitating the basket making class on July 15th.

Kenwood Park United Methodist Church
Sunday Worship—9:00 a.m.

A community where faith grows, hope is found, and love is demonstrated.

All Church Potluck

Sunday, August 4, 4:00-7:00

MethWick Community—Greenwood Terrace

1300 13th Street NW

(Follow F Avenue NW to 13th Street, turn right and follow 13th Street. It leads directly to the MethWick entrance. Follow the drive up the hill until you see the building pictured below) Parking is available in front of the building. The building is a secured building and there will be someone to greet you as you enter.

All are welcome!

Bring your own table service and a dish to share and the utensil for serving.

Coffee and iced tea will be provided.

Brochure by Linda Anderson

★ Have you checked the sign-up sheets on the round table in the narthex for a way you can serve the church? There are still some open spaces for the month of August waiting to be filled. ★

Reminder to the Worship Planning Team.... next Meeting on Thursday, July 25, at 9 a.m.

Did you know that we have an artist named Marcia among us? And her work is included in an art show? Art Show—Featuring work by Marcia Parmenter Now—Through August 3rd, at DKW Gallery, 840 Seventh Avenue, Marion, Iowa Gallery hours: Tuesdays through Saturdays, Noon to 6:00 PM Stop in and enjoy.

