

KPUMC WEEKLY UPDATES

August 29, 2019

SUNDAY IS COMING

“Banquet Etiquette” is the message this week from Luke 14. Do you like to dress up in your finest? Do you enjoy a formal evening out? Imagine all the fanfare of a wedding reception. You walk into the room and what do you do? Let’s see what scripture says about the etiquette of such affairs. See you in church on Sunday as we celebrate at God’s table Holy Communion.

Here Comes September!

The next Sunday morning we gather for worship, it will be the first day of September. As the seasons change, we see things in new ways. Last winter we wondered if it would ever warm up. Now, as summer draws to a close, we’re enjoying the arrival of some cooler temperatures. We’ll be celebrating some seasonal changes at KPUMC, too.

♦ On September 8th we will welcome the voices our choir back in worship.

♦ Also on the 8th “Time with Young Disciples” will resume.

♦ Perhaps most exciting for younger set, Sunday School classes will again be meeting at 10:15 on September 8th.

♦ Pastor Jackie’s book study begins on September 11th. KPUMC groups that took a summer hiatus we be resuming this month.

Change is good, and so is consistency. We’ll continue to worship together on Sunday mornings and hear God’s message through Pastor Jackie’s sermon. And best of all, God’s faithfulness, and the love of our Lord Jesus Christ is never changing.
