

KPUMC WEEKLY UPDATES

February 20, 2020

SUNDAY IS COMING

At Christmas we celebrated the Light of Christ coming into a dark world. In these early weeks of the new year the scriptures have continued to speak of the Light of the World. This Sunday our scripture will lead us to the top of a mountain where we will encounter Jesus in his fullness. I look forward to joining you in worship on Sunday. See you then. Blessings, Pastor Jackie

Update from Pastor Jackie:

I am easing my way back to KPUMC. I have been working at home this week preparing for Lenten worship services and the Lenten study. I'll be preaching on Sunday. The Ash Wednesday service will be at 6:30 p.m. on Feb. 26.

I am not able to drive yet. I'll be finding rides or taking Uber to the church for a period of time. My staples come out soon. It will be a few more weeks before I can start physical therapy.

Thank you for all the prayers, cards, and encouragement for the journey I have been on. God has been faithful. Once again I am reminded all of life is in God's care. No matter how much we plan and schedule; life happens. Thanks for your understanding and grace as my health is restored. Jackie

Ash Wednesday is February 26. We will begin our annual pilgrimage to Jerusalem. We will pass through the "Dark Woods" on our way to the cross. Our worship service with imposition of ashes will be at 6:30 p.m. The choir will sing.

The Lenten Study begins on March 4. There will be a class at 10 a.m. and at 4:15 p.m. Books and information are on the round table outside the sanctuary.

Holy Week service will be held on Maundy Thursday, April 9, at 6:30 p.m. Holy Communion will be offered.

April 12 is Easter. The hallelujah heard at the day break of dawn will be celebrated in worship at 9:00 a.m.
